Water Street Studios kicks off lecture series Geometric Creations in Art Architecture and Origami by Lane Allen AIA, LEED AP

Batavia IL (October 20, 2009) Water Street Studios, 160 S. Water Street, Batavia IL, will hold "Geometric Creations in Art, Architecture, and Origami" to be presented by Lane Allen on Saturday October 24, from 6-8pm. Admission is free for current Water Street Studio artist members, and is only $5 for other members and general public.

First in the Water Street Studios lecture series, Lane will explore the link between origami and other forms of art and architecture. From cubist paintings to the architecture of Frank Gehry, this lecture will explore both traditional origami and Lane's unique "Origane" (metal folding) in contrast to many interesting aspects of art and architecture around the world. Lane will start the evening with a demonstration of his Origane work.

Not a member of Water Street Studios? It's not too late. Individual, artist, and family memberships are available as well as multiple levels of sponsorship. Some benefits include, yet are not limited to, discounted event admission, e-newsletters, advanced class registration, as well as personal recognition.
