33 WEST TRATTORIA –
DOWNTOWN AURORA’S NEWEST RESTAURANT
OPENS IT’S DOORS TO SERVE UP ARTISTIC FARE AT AURORA
ARTWALK BENEFIT APRIL 8, 5-9PM

AURORA, Illinois (March 31, 2010)—Chef Amaury’s new restaurant, “33 West Trattoria” will open it’s doors for the first time to benefit and support the Aurora Artwalk on Thursday, April 8, 2010 from 5 – 9pm. Patrons will enjoy fine art and musical entertainment by Kevin Trudo. Appetizers, cheese, fruit and desserts will be served. Donation is $10.00. A cash bar will be available. Come out and support the arts, all proceeds will go to the Aurora Artwalk scheduled for Saturday, June 5, 2010 from 2-7pm.

33 West Trattoria is one of seven locations on the 4th Aurora ArtWalk on the newly revitalized “Restaurant Row” located on New York Street between Rt. 25 and Rt. 31 in downtown Aurora. The event offers an opportunity for artists to display their talent; to sell works, to network with other local artists and patrons; to showcase Aurora’s open-armed embrace to its burgeoning artist community; to highlight downtown’s historic and newly renovated structures; and to promote Aurora’s art-friendly business and property owners.

The last three ArtWalks saw outstanding attendance with standing room only audiences bringing thousands of patrons and art lovers to downtown Aurora. In this latest version, the city’s up-and-coming “Restaurant Row” will be transformed into an art lover’s paradise, with venues including North Island Center, Comfort Zone Barbecue, Ballydoyle Irish Pub, La Quinta De Los Reyes, 33 West Trattoria and Billy Goat Tavern.

The Aurora ArtWalk is produced by the Cultural Creatives, a professional group of Aurora artists, patrons, business and property owners and engaged citizens with a common interest in encouraging an arts-friendly environment, and is sponsored by Aurora Downtown and the Hollywood Casino.
